Winemaker Notes: This vintage of Buoy Red is crafted with a combination of Italian heritage and South American influence. The blend consists of Sangiovese, known for its classic old-world character, complemented by the fruit-forward Malbec and enriched with a hint of Syrah to create a unique and delectable flavor profile. Aged for 18 months, primarily in neutral oak barrels, this wine allows the fruit to be the focal point while maintaining balance and offering a refined, smooth finish.
